DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. The amendments and arguments presented by the applicant have been duly noted. However, an update search and further review of the prior art of record has prompted the presentation of new rejections presented below. In view of such, the previous rejections in the first office action have been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 7, 10 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Hull (U.S. Patent Number 1,800,255).

Hull discloses a refrigerator comprising a cooling compartment 20, a machine compartment 21, an expansion valve 27, an evaporator 40, compressor 37 and suction pipe 29. The suction pipe 29 has exposed part and embedded part as shown in the Figure. The form body and tube are made in one piece in this reference.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hull (U.S. Patent Number 1,800,255) in view of Kano et al. (JP 11304338).

Hull discloses the invention substantially as claimed. However, Hull does not disclose capillary and suction tubes are parallel. Kano et al. discloses capillary and suction tubes are parallel in the same field of endeavor for the purpose of carrying out heat exchange. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the apparatus of Hull with parallel capillary and suction tubes in view of Kano et al. so as to improve efficiency.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 1-6 are allowed.

7. Claims 8 and 9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Chen-Wen Jiang whose telephone number is (571) 272-4809. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday from 8:00 to 6:30.
